

Clinically Clear

Join Becky Taylor, RVT, MA, for two full days of compassionate, communication-focused training designed specifically for Canadian veterinary professionals. This interactive workshop equips veterinarians with practical dialogue skills to strengthen client relationships—even during challenging conversations—while also enhancing team dynamics and workplace culture. Expect more confident consults, calmer teams, and clearer communication throughout your practice.

Communication for the Modern Veterinarian

DAY ONE

Master Your Conversations

Introduction of evidence based, dialogue skills that are proven to build rapport which in turn leads to better compliance, less complaints and improved patient outcomes. A look into the science behind the skills.

DAY TWO

Dialogue Skills

Attendees get to practice what they have learned, get in the moment dialogue coaching, by reviewing communication case studies that matter to them. This is where learning comes together when we apply the skills and get peer and coach feed forward.

“

Becky created a safe and supportive environment where we could get out of our own way to focus on skill improvement. One of my many nuggets from the workshop is giving feedback/feed forward. Amazing recognition of individuals' journeys with clinical communication. VERY impactful, powerful. I recommend this course!”
